

Forest Service
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

BLACK HILLS NATIONAL FOREST

MOTORIZED TRAIL RECREATION PROGRAM

Teaming together with the Society of American Foresters (SAF), multiple Forestry Technician positions (Off-Highway Vehicle Program) are available in Rapid City, Custer, and Nemo, South Dakota, and Sundance, Wyoming.

SAF Announcement #22-NPT-SAF-462-45-6-FS-LP (Merit)

- Forestry Technicians GS-0462-04/05 \(06 – Full Performance\)

SAF Announcement #22-NPT-SAF-462-45-7-FS-KG (Merit)

- Forestry Technicians GS-0462-04/05 \(07 – Full Performance\)

SAF Announcement #22-NPT-SAF-462-45-6-RG (Recent Graduate)

- Forestry Technicians GS-0462-04/05 \(06 – Full Performance\)

SAF Announcement #22-NPT-SAF-462-45-7-RG (Recent Graduate)

- Forestry Technicians GS-0462-04/05 \(07 – Full Performance\)

Who can apply? / Online applications due in USA Jobs by Nov 9, 2021.

- Merit Candidates ~ All current permanent employees and any long-term seasonal who qualify under the Land Management Workforce Flexibility Act (LMWFA) (24 months of satisfactory experience in the last five years, with proper documentation).
- Recent Grads ~ Anyone who has graduated in the last two years or will graduate by the spring of 2022.

Visit the online Society of American Foresters Hiring Booth for more information.

The Black Hills National Forest is located in western South Dakota and northeastern Wyoming, encompassing around 1.2 million acres. It combines forested landscapes with open meadows, rocky outcroppings, and fire scars, interwoven with communities, historic sites, recreation areas, and a wealth of other public lands and private attractions.